CHAPEL SERVICE PAYS TRIBUTE TO G. W. DEAD IN RECENT TRAGEDY

President Hodgkins and Deans Express Sympathy of Entire University Body.

MANY STUDENTS MEET

Invocation Given By Rev. Muir, Chaplain of Senate; "We Need Not Mourn," Says Wilbur.

United in common bonds of sympathy and in deep respect to the memory of those who perished in the Knickerbocker disaster, the faculty and student body of George Washington University gathered in simple service at the Concordia Lutheran Church, corner of Twentieth and G Streets, on the evening of Wednesday, February 8, to commemorate the death of their fellow students, Lois Pitcher, Hazel Price, Vivian Ogden, Wyatt McKimmie, William Sammon and John Fleming.

Rev. J. J. Muir, chaplain of the Senate and pastor of the Temple Baptist Church, gave the invocation. President Howard Lincoln Hodgkins expressed the profound sorrow of the members of the faculty and student body alike and the sympathy felt for the bereavement of the families of these former students.

"When disaster comes into this life of preparation," said Dean William Allen Wilbur, "we feel that we already entered the life of work and reality." The dean recalled incidents of his own personal relation with those members of the Columbian College who have passed away. "We need not mourn those who have left us," he concluded, "for they were ready for the great experience."

Dean Merton Leroy Ferson, of the Law School, spoke of the spirit of comradeship in the University that was never so manifest as it is at present in the shadow of a great calamity. Miss Freida Creig, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Locher, sang the beautiful work, "Our Father."

MODIFICATIONS MADE IN "HONOR" SYSTEM

Student Opinion Behind Movement, Dean Wilbur Believes; Evidences of Dishonesty Are Few.

"Student opinion is behind an honor system for the school," is the opinion of Dean Wilbur. This was brought expressly to his attention by the cooperation of his large classes in rhetoric during the midyears.

"Evidences of dishonesty are few. The interest of the student body alone has brought these cases to the proper authorities," says President Howard L. Hodgkins, although he gives no official statement regarding the honesty of the student body as a whole.

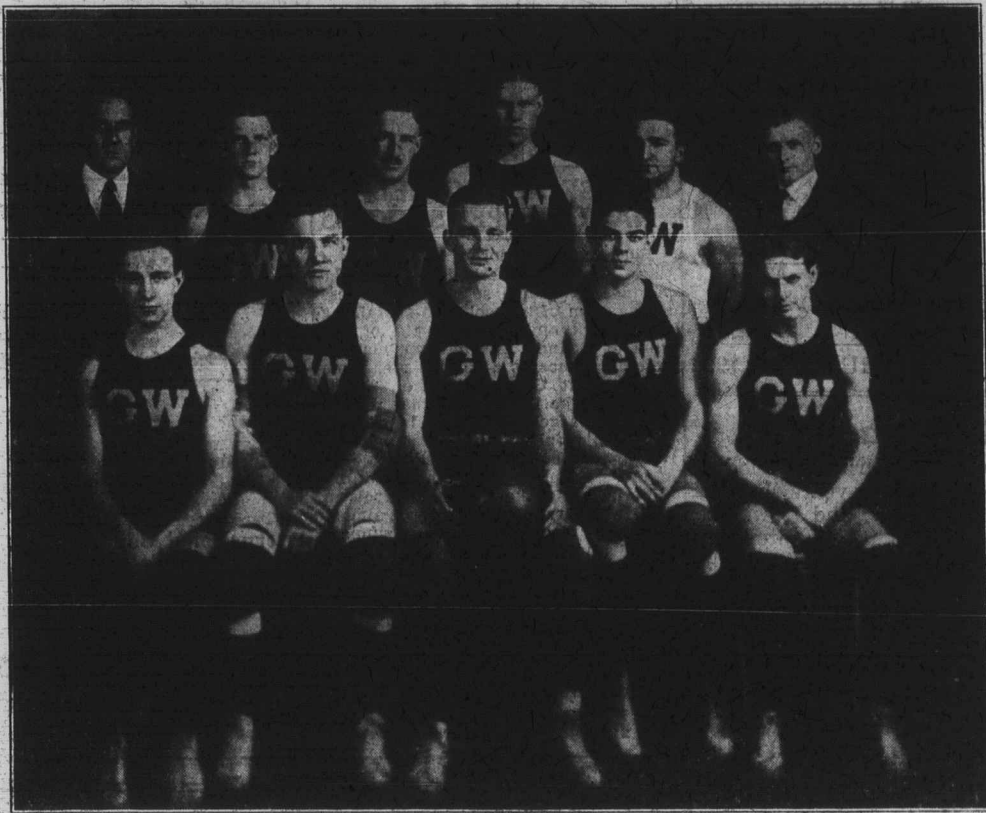

Modifications of the honor constitution are in three directions, according to the honor committee of the Student Council: First, simpler administration of the system; second, safeguarding the student charged with dishonesty until the case has been proved against him from unwise publicity that might hurt his reputation; third, the faculty must retain control over the morals of the students and so cannot leave the punishment entirely to the court of the student body, who, untempered by experience, would perhaps deal too harshly with the student charged with violation of the code. The honor constitution, with its modifications, is about ready for the action of the Student Council.

WANT RECOGNITION OF G. W. U. DEBATERS

At the meeting of the Student Council of February 1 a committee was appointed to confer with representatives of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating fraternity, regarding the proper recognition of the work of the members of the interscholastic debating team. The establishment of fixed dates for meetings of the council was decided for the first and third Wednesdays of each month. The appointment of A. C. Coe to be assistant manager of basketball and Miss Carrie Robertson to be assistant manager of girls' swimming were passed.

The committee to confer with Delta Sigma Rho consists of Mr. Burdick (chairman), Mr. Shinnick and Waldo Clark. Notice of the newly set dates for meetings of the council will be sent to all members.

HATCHETITES BATTLE STURDY VIRGINIANS TOMORROW NIGHT

Percentages Show George Washington University Team Is Playing Well.

VA. QUINT UNBEATEN

Meet Bucknell Wednesday, Feb. 15, and Gallaudet at Kendall Green Friday, Feb. 17.

Tomorrow evening the Hatchetite quint will meet the unbeaten University of Virginia five at the Coliseum. With a much strengthened line-up, the Buff and Blue dribblers expect to give the victorious Virginians a merry tussle.

The University of Virginia has beaten some of the best teams in the South and has a quint which must be reckoned with for the South Atlantic championship.

The Hatchetites will probably open hostilities with "Gude" Gosnell, leading point scorer of the District, and Earl Chesney, who has been playing a "bang-up" game recently, as forwards. (Continued on page three.)

DEAN WILBUR'S PORTRAIT FUND STEADILY GROWS

Solicitors Requested to Meet Sunday To Begin New Campaign.

Contributions to the $2,000 fund to be raised to purchase a portrait of Dean Wilbur continue to come in to the treasurer of the portrait fund committee. The donor of a contribution of $10 which was recently reported thanked the committee for informing him of the chance to contribute to this cause. Many of the letters accompanying other subscriptions express appreciation of the movement.

In order that the work of soliciting for funds may be subdivided a committee is being selected by Jay Fuller Spoerri to meet at Dr. Brigham's apartment, No. 45 the Naples, on Sunday afternoon, February 12, at 5 o'clock. All students who will come and help with this work are requested to meet with the committee.

A memory book containing the name of every contributor will be presented to Dean Wilbur when the portrait is hung.

BOARD OF MANAGERS TO BACK MUSICAL SHOW

To Put Production on Road if Successful Here in Washington.

Authorization of the Student Council to underwrite the musical comedy to the extent of $400 by the Board of Managers at a meeting on February 1, 1922, followed the receipt of a letter from Mr. Becker explaining the necessity for financial support for the rental of properties and carrying out of the present plans of those in charge. A committee of Prof. Doyle, Prof. Collier and J. P. Earnest, Jr., was appointed to pass upon the plans and the affairs of the show.

If the show, "Hold Everything," is a success in Washington it may be put on a circuit of the vicinity in Maryland and Virginia, possibly to Philadelphia. This will be of great value as an advertisement for the University, which makes it a proposition that the school will not pass by.

At a meeting of the Student Council on Wednesday, February 1, Mr. Becker presented the matter to that body. The subject was favorably spoken of, so there is little doubt that the Council will underwrite the show to the full amount if necessary.

HONOR SYSTEM FAVORED BY INTERFRAT. ASSN

The Interfraternity Association, in a meeting held Sunday, January 29, passed a resolution to the effect that it wished to go on record as advocating the institution of an honor system in George Washington University and favoring the honor constitution as adopted by the Law School Senate.

ENGINEERS MEET FEBRUARY 15

At the meeting of the Engineering Society to be held February 15 at 8 o'clock in Lisner Hall chapel Dr. Blum of the Bureau of Standards will give an address on the subject, "The Electro deposition of Metals." It is expected plans will be developed at this meeting for a dance to be held at a later date. Refreshments are to be served.

EXPRESS SORROW BY LETTER TO PARENTS

Student Council Passes Resolution Offering Condolences of Fellow Students.

Unanimously adopted as an expression of the griefed thought of the student body of George Washington University for those who lost their lives in the Knickerbocker tragedy on the night of January 28, the Student Council at the meeting February 1 resolved to send a letter embodying that thought to the parents of the bereaved. This letter takes the form of the resolution as adopted by the council:

"Whereas we, the Student Council of George Washington University, have heard with profound sorrow and regret that on the night of Saturday, January 28, 1922, the lives of Misses Vivian Ogden, Lois Pitcher, and Hazel Price and Messrs. John P. Fleming, Wyatt C. McKimmie and William Sammon were suddenly extinguished in the Knickerbocker Theater tragedy; and

"Whereas they were all our classmates, students of George Washington University, and held the affection and regard of both the faculty and the student body; and

"Whereas we are all deeply shocked and grieved at our loss; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Student Council, acting in behalf of the student body of George Washington University, do most sincerely offer the condolences of their fellow students to the bereaved families; and be it further

Resolved, That the secretary of the Student Council communicate this resolution to the families of our late fellow students.

(Signed) Robt. N. Anderson, Pres.

(Signed) Lillian Smith, Secretary.

NEW TRUSTEES NAMED.

Charles H. Woodhull, brother of the late Gen. Maxwell Van Zandt Woodhull, and the Rev. Douglas P. Birnie, a member of the University Council, have been elected members of the Board of Trustees of George Washington University, according to a statement made last week by Howard L. Hodgkins, president of the University.

Rev. Birnie was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Hon. H. B. F. Macfarland, and his term on the board expires in 1923.

Mr. Woodhull is also in the group of the board whose terms expire in 1923. He was appointed to take the vacancy caused by the death of Gen. Woodhull.

SECRETARY RECORD BROKEN.

Joseph A. Jorden, the newly appointed secretary of the Law School, established a record of efficiency in his office when he expedited returns of the examination of January 23, 1922, in common law pleading, given by Prof. Clephane, and deposited them in the boxes of the students in less than ten days following the examination.

PROM TICKET ADMITS TO GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Prize Poster Won by P. Francis; Extensive Publicity Campaign Soon To Take Place.

WINTER CONVOCATION FEB. 22

The Winter Convocation will be held in the Central High School auditorium at 3.30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, February 22. Edward J. Henning, Assistant Secretary of Labor, an alumnus of the Law School, will be the principal speaker.

Arrangements have been made by the prom committee of the Junior Class and the Glee Club concert committee to admit the holders of prom tickets to the entertainment and dance given by the Glee Club the following Saturday night at the Raleigh Hotel. According to Clarence Churchman, chairman for Junior Week, this arrangement was made with the aim of soliciting as much cooperation as possible to both affairs from the students.

"This move is unanimously acclaimed by the student body to be a veritable bonanza and will undoubtedly have the effect of quickening ticket sales," says John Paul Earnest, director of ticket sales. Mr. Earnest is planning to issue two Glee Club concert tickets for each prom ticket presented at the door at Rauscher's Thursday evening.

P. Francis won the free prom ticket offered for the best poster design, according to Daniel B. Lloyd, in charge of the poster campaign. From this design an engraving is being made and a large number of posters will be distributed to all parts of the city.

FRESHMEN HOPE TO HOLD ANNUAL CLASS PROM

It is still hoped by members of the freshman class that a freshman prom may yet be held, although it is recognized that considerable difficulty will be experienced in accomplishing this, since the social calendar for the year is already quite full. A committee of the freshman class, according to W. Graham Fly, president of the freshman class of Columbian College, will confer with the Director of Student Activities at an early date to decide whether it will be expedient to hold the prom.

Time—Saturday evening, February 11, at 8.30 o'clock.

Place—Travelers Fraternity, 1432 M Street Northwest.

Who—Invitation extended to all Masons of the University, faculty and students.

Why—To enjoy a real evening of good fellowship and real smokers.

DEFEAT V. P. I. 35-33 YEAR'S FASTEST GAME

Early Lead by G. W. and Steady Teamwork Responsible for Victory; Chesney and Gosnell Star.

Thrills galore, then more thrills marked the basketball game in which the Hatchetites nosed out the Va. Poly quint, 35-33 at the Coliseum Friday, February 3.

The Buff and Blue got an early start and made the contest look like a walk away in the first few minutes of the fray. Floor goals by Chesney and Gosnell put G. W. on the long end of a 20-7 count a few minutes before the period ended. Here Poly braced, and with a spurt of speed, scored enough baskets to bring the count to 20-17 at half time.

Both teams entered the second half with renewed energy. The visitors, however, got the jump with two baskets and tied the result at 21 all. From here on one side would be ahead by one or two points and then the other. (Continued on page three.)

STUDENT GIVES BLOOD TO SAVE THEATER VICTIM

Miss Upshaw Dies After Lengthy Fight For Life; Many G. W. U. Men Give Blood.

Hersie Ayres, 21 years old, a sophomore, in the College of Engineering and a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, gave a pint of his blood last Sunday in a futile attempt to save the life of Miss Caroline Upshaw, a victim of the Knickerbocker Theater tragedy.

The blood transfusion was made by Garfield Hospital physicians when signs of failing vitality were displayed by Miss Upshaw. She seemed to rally and the doctors believed she would recover. At about 4 o'clock Monday she began sinking and died at 7.20 o'clock after a brave fight.

Other George Washington men who volunteered for blood transfusion were Ernest Stephens, Harry Campaign, Guy Longstreet, Cy Lieven, and Robert Strickland.

ENDOWMENT DRIVE STARTED BY NURSES

A subscription card party will be held by the Nurses' Alumnae Association on February 16, 1922, for the hospital endowment fund. The party will be "staged" at 1016 Thirteenth Street Northwest at 8 p. m.; the price of admission to be one dollar.

The above mentioned organization has undertaken the endowment of a room in the hospital. A "hospital benefit" was held January 25 at the ill-fated Knickerbocker, from which a goodly amount was placed to the credit of the fund.

An Endowment Campaign

George Washington University is now in the critical period of its existence and history. It is within the last few years that the University has developed into what it is today, and it will be proved in the next year or two whether or not it will enter into the ranks of the foremost American universities. If this period is employed successfully in advancing the interests of the University, the opportunity will be at hand to make George Washington the biggest and best college in the United States.

There is nothing that will help so much to bring this about as an endowment fund. It would enable us to build larger and better buildings, would be an impetus to all the activities and instill into every student the new spirit of George Washington University. A campaign for the raising of an endowment fund launched in the near future would be successful because of the better business conditions now existing and because the alumni, the leading business men, and the organizations over the country realize the advancement accomplished by this University to the present time and the need of such pecuniary assistance for further growth.

President A. Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard, states that in order to build up the facilities and be successful "universities must be beggars, and the better work they do the more they must beg." If Harvard University deigns to stoop to such methods in order to build up her now momentous institution, why cannot George Washington in her fight for existence as a larger university do the same thing? The overcrowded conditions, the lack of equipment and facilities speak for themselves; students are doing their best to heighten scholastic standards and put forth first-class student activities. It now is up to the University officials to do their part in the attempt to make this a foremost American university.

How 'Bout Last Friday's Game?

The basketball team, in defeating V. P. I. last Friday night, made basketball history for George Washington University. Every student should feel proud of this fine showing and make this pride known by forcing the handful of G. W. students present to enlarge to a truly representative body at the next game. With the exception of three games, our team has been victorious, and in these matches our men showed they were "good losers." Whether we win or lose, it is satisfying to know that every team on our schedule is a formidable foe from a recognized university. Let's boost our team by manifestations of spirit and enthusiasm and help in every way possible to enable it to "buffalo" Virginia tomorrow night.

Now that exams are over we can think seriously of adopting the "honor system" that the council is talking about.

What will the newspapers put on the first page now that the disarmament conference is over?

Dear Stupe:
I have heard of a new dance creation called the elevator, also that it is very simple to learn. Have you any information for me about the above?

Dear Cakie:
Yes; it is very simple to learn. There are no steps to it.

Dear Mr. Stephan:

Dear Ambrose:
Call her up the next day and ask her how she liked it.

Famous expressions: "Believe me, I'm gonna go to classes and keep my stuff up this semester; no more crammin' before the next exams."

Saturday walking home I bought 10 cents' worth of gumdrops and a dozen candies to trade to the Eskimos for the pole, but the Eskimos were snow-bound and I had to come home without it.

PLEDGE AID TO HELP MAKE CHAPEL SUCCESS

Formal recognition of the efforts of those who have worked to make the Wednesday chapel services a success in the form of a resolution sustaining their work and pledging aid of the Student Council in whatever manner possible comes as a serious plea from the Student Council to the student body to make the chapel what it is in the other large colleges. It is possible to do this only with the support of the student body, expressed members of the Student Council, and certainly the aim to make official chapels a weekly occurrence, as it is in almost all other colleges, is worthy of support by the student body.

The big or little company—which?

WHEN the talk turns to where should a fellow start work, a question arises on which college men naturally take sides.

"You'll be buried in the big company," say some. "Everything is red tape and departments working against each other."

"Your little company never gets you anywhere," others assert. "The bigger the company the bigger your opportunity."

And that seems true—but in a different sense. Not physical size but bigness of purpose should be our standard for judging an industrial organization just as it is for judging a man.

Where will you find this company with a vision?

Whether its plant covers a hundred acres or is only a dingy shop up three flights is on the face of it no indication of what you want to know—is such and such a company more concerned with developing men and ideas than boosting profits at the expense of service?

You must look deeper. What is the organization's standing in the industry? What do its customers say? What do its competitors say?

There are industries and there are companies which offer you every opportunity to grow. Spiritually they are as big and broad as the earnest man hopes to build himself. If you are that kind of man you will be satisfied with a company of no lower standards.

Conversely, if you are working for such a big-souled company, the very fact will argue that you yourself are a man worth while. For in business as in social life a man is known by the company he picks.

The electrical industry needs men who can see far and think straight.

ENOSINIAN SOCIETY TO HOLD BANQUET IN MARCH

Discuss War Poets at Meeting Last Monday Evening.

At a meeting of the Enosinian Society held on Monday evening, February 6, in Lisner Hall, plans were made for a centennial banquet to be held in the early part of March. Invitations will be extended to the alumni and honorary members of the society, and men of eminence and distinction will be invited to address the gathering. Complete arrangements were entrusted to the charge of a committee appointed for the purpose.

The discussion of the war poets which was taken up at the meeting was both an education and an entertainment. It demonstrated the very marked ability of the literary of George Washington University. The poets discussed were Lieut. Col. Dr. John McCrue, Siegfried Sassoon, Robert W. Service, Alan Seegar, Joyce Kilmer, Wilfred Wilson Gibson and Wilfred Owen.

The next meeting of the society will be held on Monday, February 27, at 8:30 p. m., in Lisner Hall. Contemporary foreign poets will be discussed.

SALE TAX QUESTION
IN TRIANGULAR DEBATE

G. W. Teams Meet W. Va. and Swarthmore March 24; Coach Shorb Man of Ability.

March 24 will see the George Washington Debating teams place themselves in competition with Swarthmore and West Virginia Universities. After much correspondence between Coach Shorb and the coaches of the respective universities, the question for debate as finally agreed upon is: "Resolved, That Congress should enact legislation providing for a sales tax." Consideration of this problem is now pending in Congress, and its chief advocate is Senator Smoot. It has been the subject of much argument on the floor of the Senate and the fact that there were two legitimate sides to the proposition was brought to the front. The debates are scheduled for March 24 are as follows:

G. W. U. (negative) at West Virginia University.
G. W. U. (affirmative) vs. Swarthmore at G. W. U.
West Virginia University vs. Swarthmore at Swarthmore.
The line-up as chosen by the judges of the Law School are: Affirmative, Jackson (leader), Schoeffer, Zabel; negative, Perlin (leader), Gilliland, Maxwell; alternates, Mussman and Hughes.

These men have all had considerable experience as debaters in collegiate and high school competition, and the verdict of the judges on the final debate can only be in favor of George Washington University.

G. W. U. not only has a strong line-up, but its coach is a man of proved ability in the field of forensics. Coach Shorb received his A. B. degree from the University of North Dakota and his LL. B. degree from George Washington University with distinction. He is a member of the Covington and Burlingame law firm of this city. At the University of North Dakota he participated in three collegiate debates and won the Reutell debating prize, Palmer medal and Bennett Essay contest. The fraternities of which he is a member are the Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Sigma Rho, and Phi Delta Phi. To him the University is greatly indebted for his relentless efforts to train the teams to victory, expressed the members of the teams.

VA. LEGAL CLUB MEETS.

Hon. John Barton Payne was the chief speaker at the meeting of the Virginia Legal Club held Thursday, February 2. A Virginia bar course is in process of inauguration under the direction of the club for the benefit of students who intend to take the Virginia bar examination. This course will be taught at the University. The next meeting of the club will be held Thursday, March 2.

would take the lead. On a long shot Walker put the sphere into the hoop, which broke. This basket put the Gobblers into a 28-27 lead. Said hoop was protested, but was allowed by the officials. As six minutes more remained of play, to make it equal for both teams, each side took the repaired hoop for three minutes. Baskets by Gosnell and Woodbury put the Morsemen in the lead, 35-33, which result was maintained till the pistol was discharged ending the Hatchette fans' worries.

Chesney turned in the most baskets, scoring six, while Gosnell dropped in five and five free heaves out of seven attempts. Woodbury, who held down the center job, counted four times. The Daily-Hughes guarding combination was again much in evidence, time after time breaking up Poly's formations and preventing 2-pointers for the visitors.

The Morsemen had a slight edge on their opponents in relative accuracy in caging points from the court. Wearers of the Buff and Blue shot at the hoop 59 times and were successful 14 times for an average of 23 per cent, while their opponents attempted 62 heaves, netting 14 for an average of 22 per cent.

GIRL BASKETERS WIN
FROM GALLAUDET, 11-8

Play Fredericksburg Normal Tomorrow and Baltimore Y. W. Feb. 18.

One of the roughest games ever played by the G. W. U. girl basketers took place last Friday, when the local sextet defeated the Gallaudet team with an 11-8 score. The game was also one of the closest, for at the end of the second period each side had 8 points to its favor. The G. W. U. coeds began winning through the efforts of Daisy Robison, who threw two decisive goals. Particularly good work was done by the guards, and the teamwork throughout was excellent.

Reserves are to play the Baltimore Y. W. C. A. and the varsity meets the Fredericksburg State Normal School.

OUTCLASS HOPKINS MEDICS
IN LOOSELY PLAYED GAME

Outclassing their Baltimore opponents, the Hatchette quint easily took the measure of the Johns Hopkins Medical School five, 37 to 17, in a loosely played game. Sacrificing team play for individual work, the Morsemen did not look like themselves. Gosnell was the most accurate of the goal tossers, getting six goals from the floor. However, he was off form in foul tossing, getting only nine baskets in 19 attempts.

In the second half, after the regulars had run up a lead of 31 to 11, the second string players were given a chance to add to the score. The only outstanding features of the game were the floor work of Chesney and Hughes for the Buff and Blue and the good shooting of Wilkinson for the losers.

HATCHETTES BATTLE
STURDY VIRGINIANS
TOMORROW NIGHT

Woodbury, the crack player from Utah, will probably do the jumping, while the dependable "Capt. Jack" Daily and "Dinty" Hughes will block the scoring efforts of the Virginians.

On Wednesday, February 15, the Morsemen will try conclusions with the strong Bucknell College team, and a first-class engagement is promised, while Gallaudet will be met in a return engagement on their home floor at Kendall Green on Friday, February 17. The "Silents" are very strong on their gym, which hampers visiting teams by its "cheese box" build, and the Hatchettes should have to extend themselves to bring home the bacon.

ENTERTAINMENT HELD BY RADIO FROM ANACOSTIA

Reproduction of Music and Lecture To Be Held Every Wednesday and Friday Evening.

Starting this week, the physics lecture room will be thrown open every Wednesday and Friday evening to those interested in radio. Received by radio from the Naval Aircraft Laboratory in Anacostia and reproduced to the listeners by a loud speaking phone will be a program of music inter-persed with short talks on public health, radio and aircraft, all of which will be transmitted by radio from Anacostia or other nearby stations. The program given last Wednesday night is typical of the others to follow:

8.30, music; 9.15, public health bulletin; music; 9.30-9.45, radio bulletin; 9.50, weather forecast; 10.00, set your watch (standard time from Arlington).
The innovation of these radio entertainments is for the purpose of interesting the entire student body in radio communication and to give wider publicity to the rapidly expanding physics department of the Engineering School, according to Dr. Thomas B. Brown, head of the department. Since the fall of 1917, when Dr. Brown took charge, the physics department has developed by rapid strides. He has doubled the number of classes and has acquired additional aid of several competent men.
The entire staff now includes, besides Prof. Brown, Prof. Walter L. Cheney, and the newly acquired men: C. G.
Eichlin, instructor at Maryland State University, and A. F. Melcher, of the Interior Department; also the following student assistants: E. White, R.
Wendt, J. C. MacNab and D. B. Lloyd.

GIRLS' SWIMMING PLANS ANNOUNCED

An outline of the organization's plans is announced by Coach "Bee" Woodford, of the girls' swimming team. The girls have been practicing weekly at Central High gym with great things in view, and in about a month the first of these will take place, when on March 11 a group of about four picked girl swimmers will be sent to Baltimore to represent G. W. U. in the South Atlantic championship meets.

In the last part of March the Red Cross life-saving tests will be given, and soon after interclass meets are to be held. In the meantime, Manager Marjorie Gerry intends to make arrangements to hold meets with teams visiting the Washington Canoe Club during the first part of April. A short while later Miss Woodford will direct 5-mile swims in the Potomac near Chain Bridge, where the girls will be given opportunity to show their months of practice.

With such plans ahead of them, the girls are eagerly looking forward to the next few months, and meanwhile practicing steadily. Carrie Robertson was recently unanimously appointed assistant manager of the organization.
The following comprise the team:
Jacqueline French, Louise Strother, Catherine Hough, Portia Clifford,
Florence Maitland, Winifred Hull, Gladys
Fuller, Carrie Robertson, Nadine Calvert.

EUROPEAN TRIP PLANNED BY G. W. ART INSTRUCTOR

To Touch Important Points on Continent; Advised To Make Early Reservations.

Dr. Gertrude R. Brigham, instructor of history of art at the University, is formulating, in cooperation with the Temple Tours, a sightseeing trip through Europe. Dr. Brigham and her party will sail from New York on June 17, passing through the Straits of Gibraltar and stopping at Palermo, then proceeding direct to Naples. The itinerary includes Rome, where a special audience with the Pope has been arranged; Florence, Venice, the Alps, Innsbruck, the Passion Play at Oberammergau, Munich, Strasbourg, Paris,
Versailles, the battle fields of Chateau Thierry and Rheims, London and Liverpool or Southampton, from which port the party will set sail, arriving in either New York or Montreal on August 4, the trip lasting altogether 48 days.

Dr. Brigham is organizing the trip primarily for art and archeology students, but it is needless to enumerate the many pleasures and benefits that are to be enjoyed by lovers of travel and of Europe.

The financial aspect of the trip is as follows: There is a sum of $695 for the whole trip, which must be paid at least four weeks before sailing, and a deposit of $60 on this sum when the reservation is made. Dr. Brigham requests that all reservations be made as soon as possible, on account of the difficulty in securing passenger accommodations at the height of the season.

All students who are interested in this tour can obtain more detailed information from Dr. Brigham personally at her office, Dean Wilbur's theme room, and from circulars of the trip, which will be posted on the bulletin board.

TO ESTABLISH FIRST-AID STATION FOR STUDENTS

More than 200 girls who are members of the Woman's University Club this year have been selling candy for the purpose of raising a fund to establish a first-aid or medicinal room down at the school. This has been needed for a long time, it was expressed by members, and it now seems it will not be long before it is installed.

In the spring the club is planning to give a play for the benefit of the De Wilbur portrait fund. This is an innovation, and its result will be watched with interest.

The club holds luncheons every Wednesday after chapel for the girls of the school who wish to attend.
These have been very successful and well attended this year. Meetings are held the first Thursday of every month in the evening in the club rooms.
